CIPC China Study:

- Revision of the Working Group's initial draft report has been completed by CIPC staff. The revised draft endeavors to accommodate the voluminous comments and suggestions that were offered by the Working Group membership, orally and in writing, when the group last met on 4 April.
- The revised draft has been reduced in length by more than half. This was accomplished by eliminating redundancies that were present in the initial draft, and relegating some of the lengthy tome on capabilities to an appendix.

●

- Dissemination of the revised draft report to the full China Working Group membership will be made sometime next week following review and comment by CIPC staff management and key Working Group drafters of the initial report.
- It is presently planned to convene the full Working Group on 19 June to finalize the draft study.

CBW Study:

- A complete draft of the CBW Study has been distributed to the Working Group members for their review and comment.
- A final coordination meeting of the Working Group is scheduled for 1 June.
